 Subject: A Happy Day in Hong Kong

Dear Tom and Danny,

My grandpa came to Hong Kong last weekend. I wanted to show him around. So I went with him to many places. We had a great time!

First, we had breakfast at a Chinese teahouse. Grandpa loves dim sum.

In the afternoon, we went to Hong Kong Wetland Park because he loves nature. We walked on the floating bridge at Wideside Walk. We saw a lot of butterflies and dragonflies in the woodland! It was fun to watch birds in the Fishpond Hide too. We should go there in the winter.

Then, we had lunch in Sai Kung. The seafood was so fresh and tasty!

After the sunset, we went to the waterfront at Tsim Sha Tsui for the light and sound show.

Tomorrow is my grandpa's birthday. I want to take him to somewhere special. Do you have any good ideas?

Love,
Susan
