Listen and answer the questions.

{Locksmith: Hello. Can I help you?

Woman: Yes, please. I need to have a new key made.

Locksmith: Do you have the master with you?

Woman: Here you are.

Locksmith: I'll do it for you right now. Having a nice day?

Woman: Not really!

Locksmith: Oh dear. Not too serious I hope?

Woman: No, no, but you know, I'm so silly! My daughter gave me her spare house key last night and I thought it was in my purse, but this morning when I opened it, the key wasn't there! I don't think it's been stolen and I don't think it's outside the house, but I honestly can't find it.

Locksmith: That sounds frustrating...

Woman: It is! Actually while I'm here, I wonder if you can help me. The battery's run out on my smartphone so I can't use the GPS. I really need to find somewhere to print photos, somewhere not too expensive – around 2 dollars a picture – somewhere close.

Locksmith: Okay. I know a good place for you. The man who works there is very friendly. It's about a five-minute walk from here.

- Woman: Is it difficult to find?
- Locksmith: No – but you may need to write it down.
- Woman: Okay.
- Locksmith: Okay... Walk along Silver Street and turn left onto Liddle Avenue.
- Woman: Okay. Let me write it down. So we are now on Silver Street. [slowly] Turn left onto Liddle Avenue.
- Locksmith: Walk past the supermarket and turn right at Beech Road.
- Woman: [slowly] See a supermarket and turn right...
- Locksmith: Keep walking along Beech Road. When you see the medical centre, turn right onto Mill Lane.
- Woman: [slowly] Walk along Beech Street and turn right to Mill Lane when I see the medical centre. Got it.
- Locksmith: The shop for printing will be on your left. It's between the butcher's and the baker's.
- Woman: I hope I can find it. Thanks for your help! }

Narrator: Now listen to the recording again.
