{Locksmith: Hello again!

Woman: Oh! Hello again!

Locksmith: Did you find the print shop?

Woman: Yes, I did, and I also found a café so I could charge my phone.

Locksmith: Wonderful!

Woman: However, I'm having more trouble now. I've been trying to find an old book about this town as a present for my daughter. I'm looking for a shop called "Tree Maker". I followed the directions on my phone but it's not there.

Locksmith: I see. Where did you go?

Woman: Trevelyan Street.

Locksmith: Oh yes, nobody uses that street for shopping anymore so "Tree Maker" has probably moved. I don't know where it is now, but I can tell you where another good shop is. It's in a new building which was built last year so it probably won't be on the maps on your phone yet.

Woman: Oh, Okay. So what's the shop called?

Locksmith: It's called "Paper Match". They sell all kinds of things, for example books and magazines. They have been in business for 25 years. They know everything about this town and if they don't have what you want, they will be able to tell you where to get it. They used to be on Bishop Street.

Woman: Where are they now?

Locksmith: Well they are not too far.

Woman: Let me write that down.

Locksmith: Okay. We are on Stanton Street. Go straight along the street. Take the first turning on the right.

Woman: Okay. After taking the first turning on the right, what will I see?

Locksmith: There should be a post office on your left. Keep walking. Take the second left. Keep walking. It's the third building on your right.

Woman: Thank you. You've been really helpful.

Locksmith: You're very welcome. }

Narrator: Now listen to the recording again.
